

THE PACIFIC FESTIVAL of the BOOK

The 3rd annual celebration of writing and the art of the book with panels, readings, workshops, concerts, open mic and a literary marketplace!

MONDAY, MAY 4: Emerging Voices, a reading of youth writing
Community Arts Council Gallery 7 pm

FRIDAY, MAY 8: Open Book, A Reading with Poet Laureate Linda Rogers and Guests, Central Library 12 pm

SATURDAY, MAY 9: Festival Extravaganza & Literary Marketplace featuring: The Graphic Novel, with Ken Steacy and friends, The Writing of the Beats, Open Mic, Words for the Young at Heart with Robert Priest, Editing workshop, and more!
St. John the Divine Church and Hall
925 Balmoral 10 am 4 pm $5

SATURDAY, MAY 9: The Beat Thing: A Tribute to the Beats with readings, music and spoken word performance featuring: original Beat poet David Meltzer, Kerouac biographer Jim Christy, spoke word by Speakeasy, musicians, and much more!
1611 Quadra Street 7:30 pm $5

SUNDAY, MAY 10: Heartbeat; words and music for Mother's Day with local and visiting writers and musicians, free gifts for mothers!

MAY 11-15: Afternoon workshops on writing, editing, publishing, illustration, and other topics of interest.

Please call (250) 220-9855 or consult our website for further information and a detailed schedule, or to volunteer. All locations are handicapped accessible.

www.pacificfestivalofthebook.com

MAY 4-15, 2009

